RUNAWAY CAR.

Five Persons Injured When Motor Blew Out.

PITTSBURG, July 23.—Four men and a woman were injured and three other women fainting during an exciting panic early today on a Pennsylvania avenue street car when the motor blew out, causing the car to become unmanageable on a steep grade.

The injured woman leaped from the car with a child in her arms. Although she received severe scalp wounds, the babe was not injured. The motorman and conductor were knocked from the car by two excited foreigners, who also fell to the street.

With the car ablaze and woman passengers screaming in a panic, the car ran wildly for five squares, when the trolley pole flew off, bringing it to a stop. The fire was extinguished by a bucket brigade. None of the injured will die.

QUIETLY MARRIED YESTERDAY.

EDWARD B. McLEAN

Miss Evelyn Walsh

MARRIED IN DENVER

Miss Evelyn Walsh and Mr. Edward B. McLean.

ONLY A FEW PRESENT

Mrs. Walsh Forgives and Mr. Walsh "Tickled to Death."

WAS A WASHINGTON ROMANCE

Honeymoon at Colorado Springs Follows Quiet Ceremony—Happiness All Around.

Special Dispatch to The Star.

DENVER, Col., July 23.—Miss Evelyn Walsh, daughter of Thomas F. Walsh, was quietly married yesterday afternoon to Edward Beale McLean, son of John R. McLean, editor of the Washington Post and the Cincinnati Enquirer. Mr. McLean had been visiting the Walsh family home at Wolhurst, near Denver.

At 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon the pair came to Denver in an automobile, and, meeting Crawford Hill, proprietor of the Denver Republican, and his wife, and William Stapleton, managing editor of the Republican, they proceeded to St. Mark's Episcopal Church, where they were married by Rev. H. S. Foster.

The bride wore a white broadcloth dress and a straw hat with plumes, and the groom was attired in a business suit of gray.

The pair returned to Wolhurst, where Mrs. Walsh was told about the wedding. Last night they went to Colorado Springs, where they will make a brief stay.

Bride's Father "Tickled."

A special dispatch to The Star from Kansas City, Mo., says that Thomas F. Walsh, father of Miss Evelyn Walsh, is in Kansas City, on his way to Cincinnati, to take part in the Taft notification exercises. When told last night of the wedding of his daughter Mr. Walsh said:

"I am tickled to death. I knew they were planning to marry. They had not set the day, and it was to be a long way off. I guess they got married to save me from giving away my daughter at the altar. I could not do that, you know. Mr. McLean is the finest young man in the country, but I had not just figured on giving my daughter away to any one. They eloped to save me, I guess."

Engagement Long Known.

Although the engagement of the couple was announced several weeks ago, it received no confirmation from either Mr. and Mrs. Walsh or Mr. and Mrs. John R. McLean, although generally accepted as true by their friends.

The hasty wedding was entirely due, it is said, to the preference of the young couple for a quiet ceremony rather than the publicity to which they would be subjected by the ordinary customs of the multi-millionaire class, to which both belonged. Had been followed. At all events congratulations are in order and are all ready to be showered on the happy couple when they emerge again in the public view.

The Young Couple.

Mr. McLean is the only child of Mr. and Mrs. John R. McLean of this city, and nobody of his age is better known at the Capital. He is in his early twenties and has had every desire of his life gratified by his parents. He was connected last year with a local law firm, but withdrew some time ago to become more actively interested in his father's affairs. His bride, also an only child, since the tragic death of her brother Vinson three years ago at Newport, is a lovely young girl, impulsive and good hearted.

She was an invalid for more than a year from the injuries received in the accident which caused her brother's death, but has almost entirely recovered her usual strength, displaying throughout the ordeal splendid courage and pluck. Like her young husband, every desire of her life has been gratified by her doting parents. Her twenty-second birthday anniversary will occur next month. She is undeniably attractive and has the Irish type of beauty, which as she matures becomes more striking.

Her father's comment on the marriage is characteristic of the chummy feeling which prevails between the two. Three years ago the possibility of the young couple marrying was constantly discussed, but the last year very little was said about it, as the intimates of each were seemingly in other groups of young people, although both took an active part in what was doing socially.

Of the wealth of the contracting families it is idle to speculate in this city, where its outward manifestations are so numerous.

The remains of Civil Engineer A. G. Menocal, U. S. N., retired, who died in New York city last Tuesday, arrived here this morning and were quietly interred in the Arlington National cemetery. The funeral was strictly private, at the request of the family, there being no military ceremonies and no pallbearers.

Bluejacket Commended for Heroism.

The acting secretary of the navy has written a letter to Wallace W. Arnold, hospital apprentice at the navy yard, Boston, heartily commending for his heroic conduct in saving the life of Master Harry Silverman of 25 Division street, Chelsea, Mass.

The boy ventured into the deep water from the hospital pier, not knowing its depth. He was rapidly drowning and the alarm was given by some of his playmates. Arnold ran a distance of a thousand yards, dove in and saved the boy, who was in an unconscious state.
